PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

The calling God has placed upon my heart is to spark authenticity within the lives of His people as they seek to discover who they are in Him. God has driven this desire through my passion for exhorting the next generation of believers. I am dedicated to fostering deep connections with, and the empowerment of, young women and men of the faith. The posture of my life is to humbly serve the Lord in whatever manner He leads me, for the expansion of His name, and the transformative impact of the gospel.
